

Brisbane Airport

Brisbane Airport is located only 18 km from the city centre and the public transportation is excellent. There are two terminals at the airport, domestic and international, these are connected by the Airtrain service, which runs every 15 minutes through most of the day. The airport is well designed with plenty of cafés, bars and refreshments on offer.

For shopping the ample selection includes Sunglass Hut, World of Fun, Beach Culture, Wear & When and many others. Collins booksellers provide a wide selection of books and magazines. Duty-free shopping facilities are located in the International Terminal.

The International Terminal provides bureaux de change facilities on levels 2 and 4. Travelex has a convenient currency exchange for visitors arriving and departing, with locations on Arrivals level 2, Departures Lounge level 3 and Departures Check-in level 4.

Those travelling for business can book conference and meeting room facilities at the airport suitable for groups of 12-50 people. Provisions for the disabled include ramped and lift access to all floors, wheelchair-accessible toilets positioned on level 4, and shops and dining areas designed for people with special needs in the International Terminal.

Transportation

By car

There are taxi bays outside the terminal. A taxi journey from the Adelaide airport to the city centre takes approximately 10 to 15 minutes. The airport is conveniently located on Moreton Bay with a dedicated access road positioned off a junction of the Gateway Arterial highway near Brisbane. The access road provides easy connections to the Gold and Sunshine Coast Highways.

By taxi

Taxis are available from both the domestic and international terminals, with limousines provided on request.

By rail

The Airtrain Rail Link operates to Brisbane's Central Business District and to the Gold Coast. Trains leave almost every 15 minutes to/from Brisbane Central Business District and The Gold Coast.

By bus

Buses are available from both terminals, and there are coach services to Brisbane, the Gold Coast and the Sunshine Coast.
