August preview

A sneak peek at some of the new movies playing on board next month

Iron Man 2

Tony Stark – the billionaire industrialist, perennial playboy and attention-loving superhero – returns in the biggest blockbuster of the summer. Under pressure from the military to share his weapons technology, Tony – AKA Iron Man – must take on rival inventor Justin Hammer (Sam Rockwell) and Russian villain Ivan Vanko (Mickey Rourke) as they team up in a bid to take down Stark Enterprises for good.

Just Wright

Always the friend but never the girlfriend, physiotherapist Leslie Wright (Queen Latifah) has finally met the man of her dreams; NBA all-star Scott McNight. But there are two problems: he's a client and he has fallen for Leslie's friend Morgan. The path of true love never did run smoothly...

The Joneses

Romantic comedy starring Demi Moore and David Duchovny as Kate and Steve Jones, the mother and father of a seemingly perfect family who move into a leafy suburban area. They are soon the envy of their neighbours, who do their best to 'keep up with the Joneses' – but are this successful, wealthy family all they are cracked up to be?

Shrek Forever After

Dreamworks' flagship franchise draws to a close with the lovable green ogre's fourth and final adventure. Donkey (Eddie Murphy), Princess Fiona (Cameron Diaz) and Puss In Boots (Antonio Banderas) return, but it is the conniving new boy Rumpelstiltskin who grabs the limelight this time around when he casts Shrek (Mike Myers) into an alternative reality where he is king, ogres are hunted, and Shrek and Fiona have never met.

The Greatest

Two of Britain's most promising young actors, Carey Mulligan and Aaron Johnson, star in this heart-breaking drama. Oscar-nominated Mulligan stars as Rose, a teenager who gets pregnant after falling in love with Bennett (Johnson), but tragedy is just around the corner...
